- O2. Deputy State Steward. One (1) steward is assigned by the Racing Commission to be the Deputy State Steward; (1-1-09)T
- 03. Other Steward. One (1) steward is appointed by the Racing Association and is compensated by the Racing Association. (1-1-09)T

056. STEWARDS ON DUTY.

On each entry, scratch and racing day at least one (1) Steward must be on duty at regularly posted hours. Such duty includes and is not limited to scratch time and when races are drawn. On race day the full Board of Stewards sits in regular session to exercise the authority and perform the duties imposed. (1-1-09)T

057. STEWARDS' PRESENCE.

Three (3) stewards must be present in the stewards' stand during the running of each race.

(1-1-09)T

- 01. In Stands. There must be three (3) Stewards in the stands when a race is being run. (1-1-09)T
- Notice. The Stewards will take notice of any questionable conduct with or without complaint thereof. (1-1-09)T
- 03. Investigations. The Stewards must investigate promptly and render a decision in every protest and in every complaint properly made to them. (1-1-09)T

058. -- 059. (RESERVED).

060. ORDER OF FINISH.

The stewards determine the official order of finish for each race in accordance with the rules governing horse racing in Idaho. The decision of the stewards as to the official order of finish, including the disqualification of a horse or horses as a result of any event occurring during the running of the race, is final for purposes of distribution of the parimutuel wagering pool.

(1-1-09)T

061. CANCEL WAGERING.

The stewards have the authority to cancel wagering on an individual betting interest or on an entire race and also have the authority to cancel a pari-mutuel pool for a race or races, if such action is necessary to protect the integrity of parimutuel wagering.

(1-1-09)T

062. -- 064. (RESERVED)

065. SUBSTITUTE JOCKEY.

The Stewards for reasonable cause may substitute a Jockey of their selection on any horse.

(1-1-09)T

The Stewards for reasonable cause may place a horse in the temporary charge of a Trainer of their selection.

(1-1-09)T

067. -- 069. (RESERVED).

070. STEWARDS DAILY REPORTS.

The stewards must prepare a daily report, on a form approved by the Racing Commission, detailing their actions and observations made during each day's race program. The report must contain the name of the racetrack, the date, the weather and track conditions, claims, inquiries, and objections and any unusual circumstances or conditions. The report must be signed by each steward and be filed with the Racing Commission not later than twenty-four (24) hours after the end of each race day.

(1-1-09)T

071. -- 074. (RESERVED).

075. PRESIDING STEWARDS LOG.

The presiding state steward must maintain a detailed log of the stewards' official activities. The log must describe all questions, disputes, protests, complaints, or objections brought to the attention of the stewards and all interviews, investigations and rulings made by the stewards. The log must be available at all times for inspection by the Racing Commission or its designee. (1-1-09)T

076. -- 079. (RESERVED).

080. RACE MEET REPORT.

Not later than seven (7) days after the last day of a race meet, the presiding steward must submit to the Racing Commission a written report regarding the race meet. The report must contain: (1-1-09)T

- 01. Observations. The Stewards' observations and comments regarding the conduct of the race meet and the overall conditions of the racing association grounds during the race meet; and (1-1-09)T
- 02. Recommendations. Any recommendations for improvement by the racing association or action by the Racing Commission. (1-1-09)T

081. -- 089. (RESERVED).

090. STEWARD'S LIST.

The stewards must maintain a Stewards' List of the horses which are ineligible to be entered in a race because of poor or inconsistent performance or behavior on the racetrack that endangers the health or safety of other participants in racing.

(1-1-09)T

- 01. Ownership. The stewards may place a horse on the Stewards' List when there exists a question as to the exact identification or ownership of said horse. (1-1-09)T
- 02. Inconsistent Performance. A horse which has been placed on the Stewards' List because of inconsistent performance or behavior, may be removed from the Stewards' List when, in the opinion of the stewards, the horse can satisfactorily perform competitively in a race without endangering the health or safety of other participants in racing.

(1-1-09)T

03. Identity Established. A horse which has been placed on the Stewards' List because of questions as to the exact identification or ownership of said horse, may be removed from the Stewards' List when, in the opinion of the stewards, proof of exact identification or ownership has been established. (1-1-09)T

091. -- 099. (RESERVED).

100. RACING SECRETARY.

The racing secretary is responsible for the programming of races during the race meet, compiling and publishing condition books, assigning weights for handicap races, and receives all entries, declarations and scratches. (1-1-09)T

101. FOAL, HEALTH, AND OTHER ELIGIBILITY CERTIFICATES.

The racing secretary is responsible for receiving, inspecting and safeguarding the foal and health certificates, Equine Infectious Anemia (EIA) test certificates and other documents of eligibility for all horses competing at the track or stabled on the grounds.

(1-1-09)T

- 01. Alteration of Sex. The racing secretary determines that the alteration of the sex of a horse has been recorded on the horse's foal certificate and report such to the appropriate breed registry and past performance services. (1-1-09)T
- 02. Posterior Digital Neurectomy. The racing secretary must record on a horse's registration certificate when a posterior digital neurectomy (heel nerving) is performed on that horse. (1-1-09)T
